

OCT 19 1958

Circ.: e. 99,930
S. 142,607

STAT

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Date:

19 1958

Green, Ex-Assistant to Ike, To Speak at "Bosses' Night"

Edward J. Green, former Indiana state senator and personal assistant to President Eisenhower during his 1952 campaign will be principal speaker at the Youngstown Junior Chamber of Commerce's 24th annual "Bosses Nite" dinner Tuesday, Oct. 28 in the Pick-Ohio Hotel.

Green, assistant to the president of Westinghouse Air Brake Corp., will speak on the subject, "Leadership—Today and Tomorrow."

He served seven years with the federal government's Central Intelligence Agency in Europe and Washington, and at present is a member of the foreign policy committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce as well as vice president and director of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce.

The Frank Purnell Award will be presented at the dinner. It is given to an individual for outstanding community service. Other Jaycee awards will include the Key Man award, Man of the

Edward J. Green

Year award and a special award. Previous winners of the Frank Purnell award are Atty. T. Lamar Jackson, 1953; Atty. David E. Jones, 1954; Esther Hamilton, 1955; Lester F. Donnell, 1956 and Leon A. Beegley, 1957.